BARRON, KNOTH JOIN LANDMARK NATIONAL BANK

Overland Park, Kan. – Landmark National Bank announces the hiring of Tim Barron, Senior Vice President, and Kyle Knoth, Vice President. Barron and Knoth join the Landmark commercial banking division as part of a new small business banking team, which also includes Diana Wilson, Loan Operations Officer. The new lending group will be located in Overland Park, and will specialize in Small Business Administration (SBA) Loans guaranteed by the Federal government.

“We are excited to add Tim, Kyle, and Diana to our team,” said Michael Scheopner, President and Chief Executive Officer. “While Landmark has experience in SBA lending, Tim, Kyle, and Diana have expertise that will allow us to elevate our service levels to small businesses, in not only the Kansas City metropolitan market, but across the state of Kansas.”

Landmark’s new small business banking group brings extensive experience and knowledge of SBA loan programs. Barron has over 15 years of commercial and small business banking experience in Kansas City, which includes management of a small business banking division. Knoth has 11 years of Kansas City banking experience, including a 6 year focus on SBA lending. Wilson’s banking experience totals 19 years, including 4 as a SBA loan services manager.

“I am excited to be part of the efforts to expand the small business commercial banking effort at Landmark not only in Kansas City, but across their franchise footprint,” said Barron. “My lending career has been focused on helping entrepreneurs finance and grow small businesses, and I look forward to continuing that tradition with Landmark.”
